Safety Induction Register

New Employee Induction Register
I confirm that I have received a new employee induction, been made aware and provided with a copy of the Company Health & Safety Policy, understood and will comply with procedures and duties expected of me. I have been made aware of A1 Demolition UK's emergency procedures, arrangements for safety, and risks associated with my works, I have been given the opportunity to speak on any issue I don't understand and I am aware that I can approach the Managing Director or site Foreman at any time for further clarification or guidance.
